

I don't think that broadband power line (BPL) should be permitted as it has the potential to interfere with radio and TV broadcasts and could also interfere with emergency radio transmissions.

Keep broadband acces in the hands of the telephone and cable companies.